LSEG DATA & ANALYTICS

KEY BENEFITS

Easily navigable cross-asset insights and content.

Whether it's financial data, analytics, or market-moving news, our cross asset content coverage is unmatched. Workspace's intuitive, browser-like navigation makes it easy to find and analyse the content you need to monitor the markets – across multiple displays.

Scalable, powerful analytics.

Workspace is built on a platform for innovation. Leverage exclusive functionality including deals intelligence analytics and screening capabilities, such as SDC Platinum and Deals Business Intelligence.

Intelligent to drive efficiencies and productivity.

Workspace's structured and natural language processing make its smart search feature incredibly powerful. The more you use it, the more it personalises your experience by instantly surfacing highly relevant results – even before you've finished typing.

Productivity tools and functionality to innovate workflows and ensure you increase efficiencies and reduce repetitive, labor-intensive tasks. Increase efficiency and reduce repetitive, labour-intensive tasks with dedicated workflow tools for Microsoft® Office.

Open, future-proofed workflow environment.

We've made significant investment in capabilities that benefit your complete end-to-end needs, including connectivity to all new workflow solutions developed exclusively for Workspace.

Fast and lightweight.

Workspace is HTML5 native, with a light memory footprint and fast install that reduces deployment time and cost. Using the latest Web technology, Workspace offers parity in functionality between the browser and desktop – giving you total flexibility in how you access content.

Work better, faster and smarter – from anywhere.

No matter where you are – Workspace seamlessly syncs across all your devices, allowing you to stay connected to the markets at any time, from anywhere.
